"NAMING CHAPTER"

About the name "Inu Neko Jump". How did I come up with this name originally? Now let's try to discuss this using the order in which I wrote down ideas about the name on my notebook, and the thought-process behind them:

1. How should this be named... use "Jump"? As in a young boy jumping, "Jump!"
2. Maybe stick with "Jump"... then we can add "take-off" ... doesn't seem to have enough impact.
3. Then let's use the famous "Schrödinger's Cat" in quantum-physics. Oh- not bad! It also bring the name and the story together
4. Can't be too close... It feels as if "Schrödinger's Cat" seems a little hard to follow. However we could probably use that "-neko" idea
5. Well it is about Track & Field, maybe we should just call it "Track & field competitor (the) Neko" ... doesn't seem right.
6. To circle the world like a space shuttle... satellite then how about "Satellite Neko" ...um--
7. "FLOATING AWAY" by YMO. What is this?
8. Yuki's character is aggressive, so call it "aggressive neko"
9. Use the English term for long jumper "Long Jumper Neko"
10. And then simplify to "Lon Jum Neko" ... ?
11. Because is equipped with headphones so call it "Speaker Neko".
12. I cannot be stuck on the format "-neko"! So let's us "Neko SOUND" (No matter what, there has to be a "neko" in the name. As to pass on my thought.)

13. "Neko jump" ...?

14. "Neko's the boss" ...?

15. (Hurting from flipping through dictionaries like a madman. "Odyssey's Neko" (A descriptive historical poem by Odyssey's Homer describing a long journey) The grammar seems weird, and the meaning isn't very clear.)

16. "Neko Neko Neko" (Seems a bit weak).

17. "Neko Neko Sketch". (Super weak!) [NOTE: the kanji for Neko and Sketch are similar]

18. "Neko Mi" ... The exclamation'mark seems to add rhythm

19. Yukif's genes are from a cat and rabbit! So call it "Rabbit Kitty"

20. Rabbits and Cats, am I opening a zoo? (... already given up on himself) If that's the case, won't Taikahiro be a dog?

There's cat... there's dog... cat and dog... "Neko, Inu!" Haha! That's so stupid! (Even though it feels dumb, at this time, there was a feeling of something solid, and the next moment...)

21. "Inu Neko Jump"! Ah ha! Ahahahahaha! That's so lame, it's to the point that it's interesting! That's what I'm looking for... Yahoo!

As such, the name of this project was born. Also noting, actually at the time besides this name, I also thought up two other ones, the first one came after "Inu Neko Jump" was thought up "TECHINO Neko", the other one actually came up after writing number 14, but it might be confused with another key word that shows up later as the story develops, so it cannot be announced at this time, if there is another opportunity later, it will be announced separately
